Re: United States v. Ryan Salame, No. 1:22-cr-673-
LAK (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Kaplan:

On behalf of Ryan Salame, and pursuant to the Court's Individual Rules of Practice for Sentencing Proceedings, we respectfully submit this request for an order permitting the redaction of personally identifying information contained within Mr. Salame's sentencing submission—namely, email addresses, home addresses, and phone numbers of certain individuals who have submitted letters of support on behalf of Mr. Salame and certain references to private medical information.

As set forth in the Court's Individual Rules of Practice, Mr. Salame's redaction request is narrowly tailored to serve the privacy interests of the third parties who authored these letters of support and safeguard sensitive medical information involving a minor. See United States v. Amodio, 71 F.3d 1044, 1048, 1050–51 (2d Cir. 1995) (finding privacy interests of third parties compelling reason to justify sealing). Such information adds little to the public record, while disclosure of this information would create significant privacy concerns for innocent third parties given the media attention this case has drawn. See Gardner v. Newsday, Inc., 895 F.2d 74, 79–80 (2d Cir. 1990). The sealing is narrowly tailored to ensure the substance of each letter and the identity of the individual who authored each letter will remain fully accessible to the public.

For the foregoing reasons, we respectfully request that the Court grant Mr. Salame's redaction request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Gina M. Parlovecchio
